

South River Machar Union Public Library Board Member — Role Profile

As a member of the South River–Machar Union Public Library Board, you will help provide oversight and direction for a community service. Working with fellow board members and the library’s CEO, you will:

- Attend board meetings, review minutes and reports, and participate in discussions and decisions.
- Review financial statements and monitor the library’s financial position.
- Consider library programs, community outreach, equipment needs and fundraising opportunities.
- Support improvements to library services, including technology, access to local history and public communications.
- Participate in confidential discussions concerning wages and personnel when required.

The role suits someone with an interest in community service, sound judgment and a willingness to work collaboratively. Board members help guide and support the library, while the CEO leads the operational work.
